NUTTY DESIRES.

About us

Happilo is a health food company headquartered in Bangalore. With over four decades of experience in the food industry, we bring to you an exclusive range of dry fruits, dried fruits, spices, healthy seeds, trail mixes, festive gift hampers and more. Happilo, stands for delivering quality food products of international standards and quality. We have been producing and distributing quality Nuts and Spices since 2016. With a wide variety of products that cater to every budget and taste, our best sellers have found their way into the homes and hearts of many households. The product innovations over the years and production volumes were made possible with our two manufacturing units in yeshwantpur – Bangalore & India Food Park – Tumkur. Our gourmet brand Happilo is available across all leading Modern Retail and 5000+ General Trade stores across India. We are one of the most popular dry fruits brands searched for on e-commerce websites. We now have a wide range of distribution networks across India, coupled with our ability to capitalize on quality, food safety, great taste and other health benefits of Nuts, more growth can surely be expected. We will continue reaching out to a wider base of customer across the Asia and continue developing more exciting products for everyone in the coming years. With our customers' changing tastes, we experimented with new products to offer something innovative and healthy. This resulted in our Trial mix series, Healthy seeds, and most recently our snack packs which are a perfect substitute to all the junk food available in the market. New products, aggressive strategies and listening to the customer requirements are the most important factors for our growth story.
